

Brough Family Organization (BFO)

Authorization Form for Publication of Name

BFO Policy on Publicizing or Publishing the Names of Living Individuals
Policy Adopted by the BFO Research Committee on 4 May 2013

The BFO Research Committee does not print or publish specific genealogical information (such as the dates and places of births and marriages) on living individuals. However, BFO Members who are adults (21 years of age or older) may authorize the BFO Research Committee to publish their full names on the BFO website or in BFO publications. Such authorization must be individually submitted in print to the BFO either by letter or email.

Authorization Form:

I authorize the Brough Family Organization (BFO) to publish my full name in all future BFO printed publications and online databases.
